

monies paid into the treasury under the act of December session 1821, chapter 246, upon certain conditions therein mentioned, endorsed, "assented to." Whereupon, it was Ordered, That the bill last mentioned, and the said resolutions be severally engrossed.

And delivered bills originated in, and passed by, the senate, of the following titles:

1. An act respecting naturalization.
2. An act authorising Thomas I. Mann to convey certain lands to David Webb and Mary his wife.
3. An act to incorporate the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road Company.

Which said bills were severally read by their respective titles, and referred, the first to Messrs. Thomas of Frederick, Fitzhugh and Thomas of Cecil; the second to Messrs. Boon, Ringgold and Comegys, and the third to the committee on internal improvement.

And also delivered the memorial of Henry Lyon Davis, a citizen of this state, praying the redress of certain grievances therein set forth; referred by the senate to the consideration of this house; which was referred to the committee on education.

On motion by Mr. Thomas of Cecil, the house proceeded to consider the report of the committee on divorces, to whom was recommitted the petition of James Galbraith, of Cecil county, with additional documents for their examination, made yesterday; and the same having been again read,

Mr. Thomas of Cecil, offered as a substitute for the report, and the order therein contained, a bill, entitled, "An act for the benefit of James Galbraith, of Cecil county;" which was read the first, and, by a special order, the second time and considered; after debate, the said bill was passed, without amendment, and sent to the senate for concurrence.

The reports of the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom were referred the respective petitions of Thomas White, of Baltimore county, and Thomas Wimber, of Worcester county. made on the 29th ultimo, were taken up for consideration, and severally read the second time. The said reports were severally concurred in, and the resolutions therein contained assented to, and sent to the senate for concurrence.

The bill reported by Mr. Mercer, entitled, An act to authorise the building a bridge across the Sassafras river from Water-street, adjoining lot No. 26, in Frederick-town, in Cecil county, to James Mitchell's wharf adjoining the public landing in George-town, in Kent county, was taken up for consideration; when, on motion by Mr. Boon, the said bill was again laid on the table.
